Have you been looking for a good fight?

Well, you found it!
This is your official challenge to try put your best soup (or chili or stew) forward to compete against the best of the best.

Competitors receive free entry, free lunch and a shot at glory.
If you are more of a spectator than a fighter, you can try all the soups and vote for your favorite for a $3 entry fee.
Either way, it's time to put your soup where your mouth is!

All proceeds will go to United Way.
